Walker Praises Desert at Lions Club

Speaking before more than forty Lions Club members and guests last Thursday A. W. Walker gave high praise to the efforts of the men and women who have contributed to the development of the desert communities between Morongo and 29 Palms. The occasion was the regular meeting of the Tri-Valley Lions at Angel's Cafe in Morongo Valley. Walker, Secretary of the County Chamber of Commerce, was the guest of Cy Stanley, 29 Palms realtor, who plans a new development at Yucca Valley.

Walker said that the rapid growth of desert communities has been noted with interest by county and state officials. He emphasized the importance of the construction of the new short cut to Big Bear and other monutain resorts as a vital link between mountains and desert. He predicted that with proper handling it might well be made a part of the county and state road program of the future. Walker complimented the work of Chambers of Commerce and other civic bodies in furthering the welfare of individuals and communities thruout the area,

An appeal for financial assistance for the Yucca-Big Bear road now being built by Bill Schmidt and many volunteers resulted in a cash contribution by the Lions of $150.00.

Ambulance Ass'n. Incorporates

The Joshua Tree Ambulance Association last week received its articles of incorporation. Formerly a branch of the 29 Palms Association it will now operate as a separate entity. Frank Biggs, chairman, announced a special meeting for Thursday night at 8 p.m. He said that notices of the meeting place will be posted on the bulletin boards in the business district.

Christy Nelson, Los Angeles attorney who is a property owner in Joshua Tree, contributed his services in preparing the articles of incorporation and also paid all the expenses in having the papers legalized by the Secretary of State.

The Thursday evening meeting is for the purpose of electing officers and directors as required by the articles. All who have contributed to the Ambulance fund are eligible to attend. As soon as the new officers are installed the Joshua Tree association will meet the 29 Palms group to negotiate a bill of sale for the ambulance and to receive their pro rata share of the funds which have been administered by the parent organization.

The Joshua Tree ambulance serves the area from Sun Valley to Morongo Valley and is supported solely by contributions from the citizens from this area. Drivers and attendants volunteer for such duty and receive no compensation for their services. The officers and directors also serve without pay. All money received is used to operate and maintain the ambulance and provide necessary insurance.

Fire Company Pledges Due

Those who pledged monthly contributions to the Joshua Tree Fire Company may give them to Secretary Mary Ojala or mail them to Box 65, Joshua Tree, said Bob Fields, treasurer, this week. He reported that the local campaign was very successful and is now being followed up with a mail campaign to out of town property owners. Results of that drive will be announced later.

Malia's Open Mike's Market

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Malia having purchased a grocery business formerly operated by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hendricks are now conducting a general grocery as Mike's Market on North Center Street. Their advertisement in this issue of the Journal announces a special feature for Wednesday of this week.

Malia, a veteran of the Navy in World War I, has been operating the concrete block plant in Joshua Tree with his nephew, Al Thomas, for the past year and two months. The Malias formerly lived in Long Beach where they had moved from Pennsylvania. Mike is no stranger to the grocery business having been employed in grocery and meat departments back east.

Minor alterations will be made in Mike's Market to allow for new services. The new owners plan to install deep freeze equipment to handle frozen foods and meats. At present a complete line of groceries, some smoked and sandwich meats, beer and wine are offered.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks, the former owners, have rented one of Milo Crane's cottages and will spend the next month just relaxing in Joshua Tree.

Cunningham Files For 1st District Post

H. George Cunningham of San Bernardino, former president of the County Chamber of Commerce and member of the California State Board of Pharmacists, became the third contestant in the political race for County Supervisor from the first district when he announced his candidacy last week. Arthur Doran of Barstow, incumbent, and Ross Dana of Big Bear Lake have already tossed their hats in the ring.

Cunningham, in his announcement stated that he had the time and the desire to devote his full attention to affairs of the district. He is an owner of property in the desert, mountains and city of San Bernardino.

"As a taxpayer", says Cunningham," I am especially interested in the matter of taxation."

"Having operated my own business in the District for more than 28 years, I have a knowledge of business and its complexities, together with its relationship to public affairs. As a private citizen I understand fully the burden of the taxpayer."

"Am pledged to a platform of economy in public affairs and stand Four Square for lower taxes by reducing the present high assessed valuation on real property."

"I believe in the development of our natural resources both for home benefit as well as for our national expediency; for the early expansion of present and new industries, whereby the benefits and burdens of all of our citizens can be equalled for the common good of all. The Mountain area with its Billion Dollar tourist potential; the Desert with its mines and productivity; the valley in the strategic location for industry, distribution and factory population offer the source of payrolls, culture, education and progress and call for sound visionary thinking in capable administrative hands of our Supervisors."

First of Sun Valley Turkey Ranches Finished Last Week

Second Unit to be Ready in a Week as Turkey Growing Season Gets Under Way

The first of several proposed complete turkey ranches was completed last week by Schroeder Brothers and is now offered to prospective turkey growers by the Bunker Land Company, developers of Sun Valley Acres and sales agents for the builders. The facilities that comprise the one and one half acre ranch are a concrete block ranch home, a garage and a brooder house with graduated wire fencing around the entire area. A flock of 500 turkey poults is included in the transaction.

A second ranch is nearing completion by R. J. Pellow, former Pennsylvania turkey raiser, and is expected to be complete in another week. This unit includes a dwelling with car port and a new type brooder house. Both ranches were completed in record time in order that prospective growers might start flocks in time to meet the holiday market later this year.

Chester R. Bunker, president of the Bunker Land Company, announced early this week the appointment of Delphine K. M. Marcy, 29 Palms realtor, as agent for Sun Valley Acres turkey ranches and other properties in the 29 Palms area, Mrs. Marcy is enthusiastic about the turkey raising prospects and future development in the Sun Valley community. Appointment of agents in other areas is now under consideration by the Bunker Land Company. An intensive advertising campaign to bring to the public the advantages of the growing industry in Sun Valley is now under way.

Already showing excellent progress are the flocks of the Kroes-Halstead ranch and the A. P. Dutton ranch. The birds are thriving in the ideal climate and growing conditions that prevail in this area and give promise of equalling or surpassing the record of last year's flocks which averaged three pounds per turkey heavier than other turkeys grown in southern California.

Bloom-Duval Form Building Firm

George Bloom, well known Joshua Tree builder, and Leonard Duval, formerly of Chicago, announce this week their association in a partnership to engage in building activities in this desert area. The new firm will be called Bloom and Duval, Builders. Bloom recently obtained his general contractor's license.

George and Mrs. Bloom have been Joshua Tree residents for three years. They own and operate Valley View Motel and George has built several attractive homes in Joshua Tree. He is particularly noted for his excellent concrete block work and fine construction of native rock fireplaces. He has been a builder for forty years.

Leonard Duval, his wife and children, have been desert residents since last November. He has been in construction work for 15 years. With his brother, Duval finished a block of 200 homes in Oak Lawn, a Chicago, Illinois, suburb.

Bloom and Duval laid up the blocks for the Lindberg building on the Hiway, built a garage at the Harper residence on Park Boulevard and are now doing a flagstone fireplace and exterior rock work at the new steel frame home in Yucca Valley.

Scouts Check Road Traffic for Lions

Members of Troop No. 75, Boy Scouts of America, were busy Saturday and Sunday checking the number of cars using the 29 Palms highway as part of the road survey program of the Tri-Valley Lions Club. The traffic tally was made from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day at Morongo Valley, Yucca Valley and Joshua Tree.

The count at Joshua Tree for the two days showed approximately 1400 vehicles travelling west and 1600 going east. These figures included local as well as thru traffic.

The Scouts who made the count are David Harmon and Pat Whitney at Morongo Valley, Gene Roberts, Robert Mercatoris, Dale Weston and Fred Tunstall at Yucca Valley, and Don Bayes and John Harmon at Joshua Tree. Final tabulations will be made and presented to the Lions Club by Don Van Camp, scoutmaster of Troop No. 75.

Miners Will Meet at Yucca Valley

The 29 Palms chapter of the Western Mining Council, Inc., will meet Wednesday night, April 7th, at 8 p.m. in the Yucca Valley Community Hall. It was announced by Chapter president Thornton that meetings will be alternated among the communities in this district in order to accomodate the membership living in the several towns.

To further the objective of the Council in attempting to have the Monument opened to mining activity a membership drive will be staged. Many members from this area attended the desert meeting of the Council recently held at 29 Palms.

At LeOrra Courts last week the guest list included Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Newton and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Newton of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Hans Dickman of Newport Beach who are building a home in Yucca Valley; Mrs. J. Granville and her son, A. J. Granville of Los Angeles; H. J. Smith of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Carson of San Pedro; C. J. McNeill of Dayton, Ohio; Earl S. Reitz of St. Louis, Missouri; and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tolley and son of Klamath Falls, Oregon. High winds forced down the Tolley's plane as they were crossing here enroute home. They proceeded the next day.

Mrs. Mabel Bedell and Mrs. Callie Sweitzer of Los Angeles are spending a week at Golden Tree Lodge. They accompanied Steve Moninger of the Townsite Company from Los Angeles to Joshua Tree.

Miss M. E. Sweet of Glendale was a weekend guest at Mira Monte Court. Miss Sweet drove out from the city with Col. E. B. Moore of the Townsite Company and Steve Moninger.

Jack Green of Johnson City, Tennessee, was a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Frye, last week. Jack is attending school in Riverside.

Plmb. Supplies, Arnold's, Morongo

Weekend guests at Mira Monte Courts were Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Gunter of Sunland and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnhart of San Gabriel

A real western touch has been added to the town since Pepper and Eagle have become a part of the Ojala family. Pepper is a prancing bay mare that Norma Ojala rides and Eagle is a white gelding belonging to Mary. Gus was also giving the new steeds a workout last weekend.

Swelled up like a poisoned pup meant just that to Pick and Berdie Laughlins bull pup last week. Apparently he got tangled up with a sidewinder and didn't duck soon enough. Pick reports that the pup is recovering, however.

Local Author Writing History Of American Burlesque

Lars Moen, Joshua Tree writer and author of "Under the Iron Heel" is now at work on a history of the American burlesque theatre. Moen feels that burlesque is the one typically American contribution to the stage that has never been treated adequately in book form. He plans to spend the summer gathering material for his forthcoming book which will be brought out by an eastern publisher.

Moen is an instructor at the Maren Elwood Professional School for Writers in Hollywood. He spends three days every week at the school and the remaining four days in Joshua Tree. Several of his students have also established homes here and in Sun Valley Acres. Moen is also contemplating a mystery novel, or who-dun-it for the same publisher.

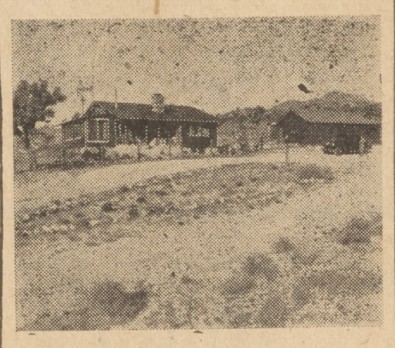
Lowly Philosophy

By JUNE LeMERT PAXTON



THE JOSHUAS

It was past midnight but the quiet block in Hollywood in which our family have lived for the past twenty five years was buzzing with activity. My daughter, Evelyn, and my sister, who is visiting from Illinois, were sitting with me in our unlighted living-room. We were watching a house-moving company dexterously swing an apartment out into the street and move it down the avenue.

No homes along the block were lighted but one could feel that all of the more fortunate neighbors were doing just what we were: peering out through open Venetian blinds to a scene that filled us with mingled emotions of excitement and sadness. Progress, in the form of the Hollywood Freeway, is cutting right through our block of homes; it is pushing its way along leaving many of our old-time neighbors uprooted and homeless. These homes were modest but comfortable; the owners had kept them in good repair and expected to live there the rest of their days.

But there in the middle of the night we heard and saw strangers moving about under the street light; they were moving away what was to these people a very part of their lives — the ownership of their homes and their financial security. All of this uprooting may be a necessary step in keeping with our fast way of living and yet, watching this transformation taking place, we felt keenly the sorrow of our former near-neighbors.

Morongo Valley Notes

By GLADYS ULRICH

The first Easter service in Morongo Valley's new Community Hall was conducted by Rev. Geason, who recently moved with his family from Rosemond, California. The service was well attended by grownups and children.

At the close of the morning service Ray Carter supervised an Easter egg hunt for the youngsters in which H. M. Hess did the announcing. First prize golden eggs were found by Marsha Law and Sonny Carter, and the silver egg second prizes discovered by Joan Welcher and Patsy Holman.

In the amusing contests that followed Shirley Carrico won the egg rolling event by her nose, with Charlotte McCracken second. Bobby Hobgood won the boys sack race and Pansy DeLand was victorious in the same event for the girls. Thena Bobo and Carol DeLand each won an egg-on-spoon race.

Easter baskets and plants for prizes were contributed by Ray Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. E. Holloway. A song by Zoleta DeLand, community singing and a prayer by Rev. Geason closed the day's activity.

Mrs. Gladys Ulrich spent a few days in Los Angeles last week. She visited Mrs. Cassidy at the hospital while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Lee were hosts at a birthday dinner for Mrs. Anton Terp a week ago Saturday at the Morongo Lodge. Mr. Terp and their daughter Gladys were guests also. After dinner champagne was served the party at the Hitching Post.

The Morongo Women's Social Club entertained on Thursday last with an April Fool party and pot luck dinner. Cards and games were enjoyed by the members.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas of Long Beach spent the weekend at their desert cabin in Morongo Valley

Church Corner

By ANTOINETTE KIRCH

A large congregation which included many visiting worshipers heard Dr. D. C. Williams preach eloquently on "The Inner Room" last Sunday morning at the Joshua Tree Community Chapel.

A special musical treat was offered by Kenneth Parks, baritone soloist from St. Stephens Episcopal Church in Hollywood, who sang "Beside Still Waters" by Hamblen. Mrs. Brill accompanied him at the piano.

Our Building Fund drive is on in full force and all contributions will be welcomed, both for the building and the furniture which will be needed.

KEEP Friendships Warm via Long Distance

THE old dictum, "Out of sight, out of mind," can be completely annulled by keeping friendships warm by way of Long-Distance. Talking long-distance is just as easy as talking next door, or over the garden fence, and calls go through fast now.

Short long-distance conversations (long ones aren't necessary to keep the channels of friendship open) are not expensive if you make your calls between six in the evening and four-thirty in the morning, and all day Sunday. Special low rates for long-distance calls anywhere in the United States prevail during these hours. Ask operator for information about tariffs . . . you may be surprised at how low they are.
